

Private Admonition -- Board Case No. 15, 1991. Date of Sanction: February 11, 1993.
Respondent represented a client in a workers' compensation matter and a separate tort action pursuant to contingent fee agreements which were not in writing, in violation of DLRPC 1.5(c), which requires such fee agreements to be in writing.

After a hearing, the Board on Professional Responsibility imposed a private admonition without conditions except for the payment of costs on January 12, 1993.
